The Dress

Why we should clean and preserve..."The dress"

A lot of time goes into the selection process of your wedding dress. In fact some say it's all about "The Dress"! As a little girl, we have a picture in our mind of what it will look like and once we find it and slip it on no matter how many others we try on, chances are we will return to that first dress.

We visualize our wedding day and about the walk down the aisle, and the look in our soon to be husband's eyes as they first see us in "The Dress." In the back of some of our minds we are also day dreaming and planning ahead that potentially if we are blessed with a daughter of our own that someday maybe she will also want to wear "The Dress." Some of us even further fantasize about how wonderful it would be if on our 25th wedding anniversary we could slip it on once again and renew our vows to each other.

However once the wedding day is over, a lot of us put our gowns back into the garment bags they arrived in with good intentions of cleaning and preserving sometime soon. But as time marches on this sometimes turns into weeks and then years and this procrastination can pose risks to our long time dreams for "The Dress."

So when making your wedding checklist be sure to include one more step after the honeymoon to..... clean and preserve "The Dress."
